

This has been a busy and exciting week in the “lame duck” session of the House and Senate. Things have moved quickly and it has been difficult to follow the movement of amendments and legislation. Education has been an active area (although guns, abortion, and other issues have been most heated and active). The next couple of weeks should continue to be interesting.

Plan To Extend Easier Graduation Requirements Sent To Governor

A measure keeping relaxed high school graduation requirements in place for an extra year is heading to Gov. John Kasich after the House on Thursday concurred with changes to a measure that cleared the Senate earlier in the day. The lower chamber's 78-1 concurrence vote followed the upper chamber's unanimous approval for the legislation (HB 491), which initially was focused on licensing for related services providers. The Senate Education Committee on Wednesday added the short-term graduation requirement fix as an amendment to the bill. (See Gongwer Ohio Report, December 5, 2018)
